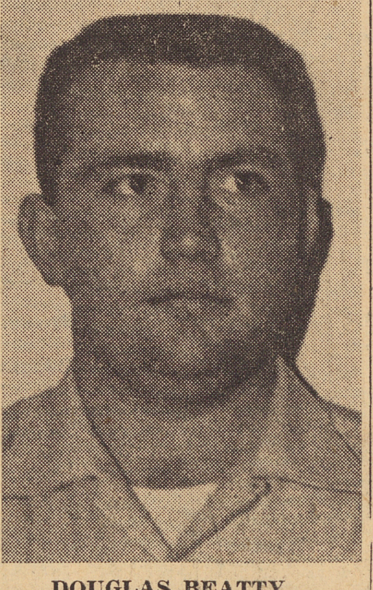
Youthful C of C Prexy Lists Goals for Year

One of the youngest presidents in the history of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce took office this week and enthusiastically outlined a progressive program for the year for C. of C.

Douglas Beatty, 26, assistant manager of Western Gravel Co., of Campbell and newly elected C. of C. prexy, stressed the importance of continuing an aggressive annexation problem for the city and at the same time emphasized the need for a campaign for "shop in Campbell" spearheaded by a strong Merchants Committee.



DOUGLAS BEATTY
. . . Youngest President

Objective

"Another objective," Beatty said, "is to see that Campbell takes its rightful place in the expanding Santa Clara County as a city of light industry. This means added payrolls, more homes, more retail outlets and a more substantial tax base so the City of Campbell can operate more efficiently."

Beatty said he favors a closer cooperation between the City Council and the Chamber of Commerce. "We should work together because we are basically working for the same goal, the advancement of Campbell" is the way he puts it.

The youthful president said that both the City and its people must take a realistic viewpoint of the future which means, he points out, that the civic improvements that are so necessary (streets, sewers, parks, etc.) must be met by a future bond issue. "There is no other way to obtain these necessities," he adds, "and as Dutch Hamann of San Jose pointed out 'progress costs money'."

Membership Drive

"We intend to make a concerted membership drive with the hope that the membership increase shown last year will continue. There are still many business and professional people of Campbell who are not members of the only organization in the world that has their interests at heart," Beatty emphasizes.

The C. of C. head also is hoping that members will take a more active interest in the organization and participate in the various activities that have been planned for the year.

Beatty complimented Milton Nelson, his predecessor for the accomplishments of 1956 when the C. of C. was reorganized, the dues structure radically changed, an aggressive annexation program undertaken, a drive to attract new industries started and the first full-time secretary-manager in the Chamber's history, Sam Cava, was employed.

Beatty especially commended Cava for his work done during the year. He said that every effort will be made to retain the energetic manager in his post, although the financial situation of the C. of C. at the present time has made Cava's position precarious. However, Beatty is optimistic that this obstacle will be overcome.

Here Since 1950

The new president of the Chamber became associated with Western Gravel, of which his father, Lynn Beatty, is general manager, in January 1950. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Chamber since July, 1955. He also is a charter member of the Campbell Lions Club and served as charter secretary when the club was organized in 1951. He is a member of the Elks Lodge in Los Gatos.

He was married to the former Elaine Wilbur of Los Gatos and with his wife and two sons, Craig, 5, and Richard, 2½, lives at 13434 Ward Way, Saratoga.

Beatty was born in La Habra but his family moved to Los Gatos in 1941 where he attended both the Los Gatos elementary and high schools. He was an all-league tackle on the Los Gatos High grid team and after graduation attended Hartnell J. C. in Salinas and was a member of the Hartnell J. C. football team. He later attended San Jose State.

You Gotta Stop!

Residents in the vicinity of the intersection of Virginia Ave., Cypress Ave., Bucknall Road and W. Rincon Ave. probably will not cringe so much from the squeal of brakes in the future as they have in the past as a result of action taken by the City Council Monday night.

The Council adopted an emergency ordinance Monday that will place stop signs at all corners of that intersection. Residents of the area mindful that the intersection was used daily by school children had requested the signs to slow traffic. A subsequent traffic survey verified the need.

Because it was an emergency action, effective immediately, Street Superintendent LeRoy Black was instructed by the Council to erect the signs immediately and also paint the necessary markings in the streets.

The same ordinance specified additional "through streets" for Campbell.

Winchester Road Campbell Avenue Plans Become Law

Another controversial chapter in the future planning of Campbell came to a close Monday night when the City Council by a 4-1 vote adopted the ordinance establishing the official plan lines for both Winchester Road and Campbell Ave.

The ordinance itself becomes effective in 30 days but when the plan lines become effective, i.e., when the streets will be widened, still remains only a gleam in the eyes.

The plan lines definitely establish the fact that when the two streets will be widened, the extra needed width will come off both sides equally.

Although the people living on the streets or those having business establishments on them, were willing to concede that the thoroughfares will probably have to be widened eventually, the opinion was divided during the months of discussion as to which side of the streets should take the beating.

Although no interested residents were on hand Monday night when the Council dropped the final curtain it was evident that there was still some question as to whether the right crystal ball was used, for Councilman Richard Morton cast a negative vote on the adoption of the ordinance.

Morton agreed that the plan line for Campbell was probably the only solution but declared that the adoption of a Winchester Road line that would take land equally from both sides was a short-sighted viewpoint. He maintained that an extensive survey should have been made first to decide which was the right way to go.

A Snowman Comes to Town

Snow, something Campbell doesn't see very often, fell out of the sky Monday morning and created quite a stir. It didn't stay around long, however; but it was snow, and no doubt some children who had never seen snowflakes fall before saw them for the first time.

The arctic air-mass that brought the snow also brought frigid temperatures; but the storm really didn't add much to the 5.15 inches of precipitation that has fallen since last June 30. Old Jupiter Pluvius is still behind: Last year at this time we'd had 18.24 inches.

At the higher elevations the snow stayed around. Some parents let their children play hookey, and took them up to see it. And as parents and children do, they brought some of it back with them.

That's how the Catalpa Lane Snowman (above photo) came to be. He was gathered somewhere on Skyline Blvd., and brought down (in a rather mixed state) in the trunk of a car.

The children around him (left to right) are, Johnny Del Carlo, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Del Carlo, 105 Catalpa Lane; Barbara Lee Colvett, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Colvett, 91 Catalpa Lane; and Artha Landreth, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Landreth, 122 Catalpa Lane. Barbara's parents brought the snowman's snow down to the front of their house and with the youngsters help built him. He didn't stay long on Catalpa Lane. If you go there now you won't find him. A tragic thing, a snowman.

City Council Rejects Zoning Change for Hatchery Property

In an unprecedented action, the City Council on Monday night by a 3-2 vote turned down the ordinance which would have changed the zoning of the property occupied by the old Campbell Hatchery, at 60 Mission Way from residential to commercial.

The negative vote by the Council came after the second reading of the ordinance, the final step before it would have become a city law. The Council had given the first reading to the ordinance at its last meeting. The history-making (as far as Campbell was concerned) vote thus brought to an end the long battle that Mr. and Mrs. Burt L. Burda, owners of the property, have staged to have it rezoned in order to put it to other use than a hatchery operation. The hatchery, however, has not operated for some time. The Burdas had announced they intended to build apartments and a professional building on the location.

Councilman Richard Morton spearheaded the attack which led to the demise of this particular zoning ordinance. The change in zone had been approved by Planning Commission when the zone-change request was presented for the second time. The Burdas had first requested that the zone be changed to light industrial but had withdrawn this application in face of strong opposition from residents in the immediate area who felt that the undedicated narrow Mission Way would be over-taxed by the traffic.

The Planners indicated that they would look with favor on the application if access to W. Rincon Ave. would be provided. The second request for commercial zoning included more teeritory and allowed for ingress and egress to W. Rincon. It was this request that was approved by the Planners after a public hearing, then drafted into an ordinance by the City Council. It was given a first reading and another public hearing was held, only to meet its downfall on the final vote.

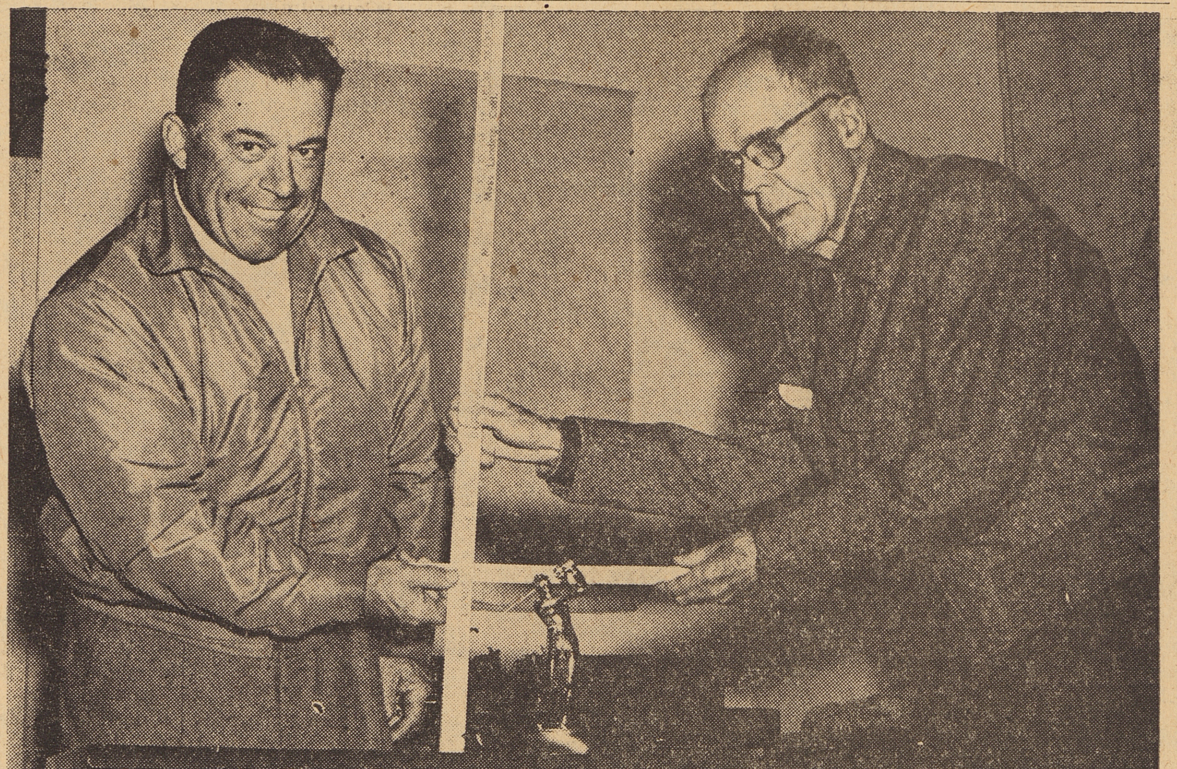
Councilman Morton claimed that it was poor planning to extend commercial zoning any further along Rincon Ave. He maintained more planning was necessary and that the rezoning did not answer the question of "what else was there to do with it."

Morton's stand was backed by Councilman Charles Schmidt and Charles Rose. Schmidt said he felt that it was unsound planning to have a "commercial finger" extending into a residential area.

Councilman Myron Fairchild, however, took the opposite side of the question. He said that commercial zones almost always extended to residential zones. Morton had claimed that extending commercial zoning along Rincon would open the gates for similar requests from other residents and Fairchild answered that it was not necessary to grant such requests.

Mayor Chargin sided with Fairchild. He pointed out the Planning Commission, after a public hearing, had approved it and that the City Council had passed the first reading of the ordinance also after a public hearing. He thought that the objections should have been brought up then and not at the last minute. He also contended that, although the zone change may not be the best solution to the problem, at least it was a definite improvement over what existed there today, a run-down hatchery.

The show-down in the vote came when Councilman Fairchild moved for the adoption of the ordinance. Mayor Chargin had to relinquish his gavel to Councilman Rose, vice-mayor, so that the motion could be seconded. Acting Mayor Rose called for the vote, Morton, Schmidt and Rose voted "no" with Chargin and Fairchild voting "yes".



SEE WHAT I MEAN, JUDGE? . . . Mario Saia (left) recently was "fined" by the Campbell Rotary Club of which he is a member because he had won a trophy awarded for his prowess at the Rinconada Golf Club. The fine was based on the size of the trophy (on a per inch basis). Two fellow Rotarians claimed that the trophy was 22-inches high and Mario paid accordingly but under protest. To prove that he was overcharged, Saia called in Judge John D. Blaine (right) long-time resident and for more than 20 years Justice of Peace in Campbell, to apply the yard-stick. The results are pictured above. The trophy measured about nine inches high, the Judge figured. Saia claims he paid the fine for a 22-inch job. He wants either a bigger trophy or retribution one way or another for the two Rotarians, Joaquin Payne and Tony Raffanti, who brought up the matter.—Campbell Press photo.

County Planner Warns of School Sites Shortage

Sites for new schools that will meet standard requirements are becoming very scarce in Santa Clara County today in the face of an increasing population, according to Karl Belser, County Planning director in a talk at the Tuesday morning breakfast meeting of the Los Gatos-Saratoga Board of Realtors.

New high schools require 50 acres while elementary schools require 15 acres as sites with costs to two million dollars for new high schools and $350,000 to $500,000 for new elementary schools, Belser explained adding:

Where to Go

"I just don't know where a 100 or more acre site in the Los Gatos area is to be found for a new Junior College as reported in newspapers."

One way to reduce the total acreage requirement might be to unify the districts so that Junior High Schools can be set up requiring 25 acres.

"There is a growing tendency in this county toward urbanizing schools so that children may walk to their classrooms. I figure that school buses are on their way out".

A 25-acre school site at Mountain View cost $12,500 per acre, this week and it looks as if new school sites in the Campbell district will soon be $10,000 to $15,000 per acre at the present trend. A subdivision with 600 new families gives rise for a new school. Even at present prices it is better for school districts to buy sites while they are still available rather than wait until values are out of hand.

Gathering Data

Belser said that the County Planning Commission is gathering data for school districts, charting potential growths for the next five years so that needs may be oriented. Trying to deal with fifty boards of trustees is difficult as the factors of assessed valuation, bonded indebtedness and political boundaries are not easily or willingly traded.

Elementary, High School Districts Vote on Bonds, State Aid Tuesday

Voters in the Campbell elementary and high school districts will go to the polls next Tuesday (February 5), and approve or disapprove more than $16 milion in state aid and bonds to be used by the districts for school build-up. The special election will be held jointly between the two districts, in that both will use the same ballot and polling places.

The Campbell Union Elementary School District will ask voters to okay $2 million in bonds, and $5 million in state-aid.

The two million in bonds must be sold by the district to bond itself to capacity, and thus make it eligible to receive state-aid. The state-aid program requires that a district be bonded to capacity before it can receive state-aid.

The Campbell Union High School District will ask voters to authorize $2,500,000 in bonds, and the acceptance of seven million dollars in state-aid.

The funds will be used by the two districts to meet the anticipated sky-rocketing growth anticipated in district schools in the next five years.

12,000 By 1961

Enrollment figures for the elementary district show that its ten schools have had to accommodate 3100 more students last year than in 1951. In 1951 the district's enrollment was 3000 students. Right now it is more than 6100 children—a gain of 3100 pupils in five years.

Basing predictions for the future on these figures, it can be expected that the enrollment will double again in the next five years—1956-1961. It is estimated that by 1961 there will be an enrollment of 12,000 in the district.

To meet this growth, the elementary district plans the completion of eight new schools, two of them, the Parkway and Sherman Oaks schools, already under construction.

The sites have been purchased for the Lynnhaven and Hazelwood schools. Construction of them depends largely on subdivision growth in the areas.

Use of the bond money and state-aid funds in the elementary district will break down as follows: $2,900,000 for construction of new schools; $800,000 for purchase of three more sites; $150,000 for 10 more portable classrooms, (the district presently has eight); and one million for the addition to the district's present 10 schools of 43 classrooms, including two shops and two homemaking rooms.

Phenomenal Growth

Turning to the high school district, enrollment figures indicate that phenomenal growth in enrollment can be expected.

In the spring of last year 399 seniors graduated from Campbell high school. In the fall of the same year, 921 freshmen entered the two district high schools. That's an increase of 522 pupils from one semester to the next.

A total of 503 seniors are expected to graduate this spring; 1046 freshmen are expected to enter high school next fall. This will be an increase of 543 pupils.

Projecting further, enrollment is expected to be 4152 in 1958-59; 5270, in 1960-61; 6533, 1962-63; 7581, 1964-65. The present enrollment of the two high schools in the district is 3000.

To accommodate these tremendous increases the district plans three more high schools to be finished by 1964. One is expected to be built by 1959; another by 1961; and the third by 1964.

According to a district report, estimates on enrollment made in 1950 have proven to be almost two years behind the actual growth.

Two Sites Bought

Two of the sites for the proposed three new high schools have already been purchased.

Money was secured for purchase of the three sites by a special bond election held last June by the district. The third site to be purchased has already been condemned. It is located on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road, north of the Southern Pacific crossing.

The other two sites are located on Moore Ave., and at the intersection of Blackford and Boynton avenues, and Harriet and Lovell avenues.

State-aid and bond funds, in addition to constructing schools on these three sites, will provide for the completion of building and grounds at Camden High School, building of a multi-purpose room to replace the cafeteria at Campbell High School and the surety that students who attend district high schools will not be subjected to double sessions, limited education programs, supplies, equipment or facilities.

Current tax rate in the high school district is 30 cents. Passage of the bonds and state-aid will bring it up to approximately 40 cents — the ceiling for state-loan repayment taxation.

Tax rate in the elementary district is currently 54 cents. The passage of the bonds and state-aid will cause little or no difference in this rate.

Where to Vote

Voting might be a little confusing during the February 5 Campbell Union High School and Campbell Union (Elementary) School District bond and state-aid election.

Because the Campbell Union High School district is composed of more elementary districts than just the Campbell elementary district, persons in the Moreland, Cambrian, Burbank, and Union districts, (which are not on the ballot), will vote only on the high school propositions.

Get that?

The following precincts, lying within the boundaries of both districts, will vote on both the elementary and the high school propositions.

Maypark 2; and San Jose 202, 230, 231, 249, at Monroe School.

Burbank 1, Gardner 2; Hamilton 2, 6; Maypark 1, 4, 6, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17; and San Jose 166, 216, at Moorpark School.

Vineland 6, 7, 9, 10, 13, at San Tomas School.

Meeting this Sunday

Minister Outlines Plans for New Presbyterian Church for This Area

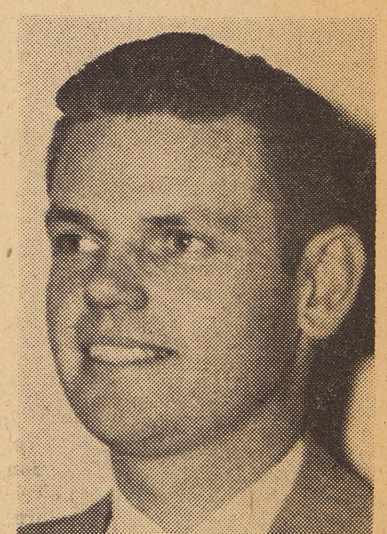
Pans for the organization of a new church for the Campbell-Cambrian Park area by the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. will be outlined at a "get acquainted meeting" this Sunday afternoon (February 3). The meeting will take place at the Camrian Park Methodist Church, according to the Rev. John R. Chandler, organizing minister.

The Rev. Chandler has invited all those interested in the organization of the new church to attend Sunday's conference at the Methodist Church in Cambrian Park, located at Wyrick Ave., and Gunston Way. The meeting has been called for 3 p.m. In the meantime during the organization period, the minister has established an office at the corner of Union Ave. and the San Jose-Los Gatos Road (587 Union Ave., Suite 4).

The new church is being organized in cooperation with the Comity Commission of the Council of Churches and Presbyterians living in the area are already making survey calls to form a nucleus for starting services.

When an adequate meeting place has been secured Sunday church school classes and a worship service will begin. It is planned to set up classes for nursery through adults and care for infants will also be established.

The Rev. Chandler, a World War II Navy pilot, and his wife and two youngsters are temporarily living in Los Gatos while their home at Carlton and Bel Escou is being built. The young minister was graduated from Occidental College in 1948 and from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1951. He organized the church in La Mesa, California and in 1954 entered the San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, California to study for his Th.D.



REV. JOHN R. CHANDLER

During his residence study at the seminary, he worked halftime as assistant minister at the First Presbyterian Church, Stockton. His research for his doctorate is in the field of church organization and he plans to complete work on his thesis as he arganizes the new church in this area.

Intentions Good .. Timing Poor

By a 3-2 vote on Monday night the City Council rejected an ordinance that would change the zoning of a section in Campbell from residential to commercial. The property involved at 60 Mission Way is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Burda and the old Campbell Hatchery, which has not been operating for a number of years, is located on it.

There is nothing basically wrong with the rejection of this ordinance.

And it is also a healthy sign to have a divided opinion once in a while whether it be on a City Council or a Planning Commission or on any board of directors. Deliver us from the day when everyone will have the same opinion on any given subject.

Both sides in this instance have strong arguments. That cannot be denied.

But we contend vociferously that the timing in this action was exceedingly poor.

Let's review the record:

When the hatchery was in full swing, it operted under what is termed as a non-conforming use permit, carried over from pre-incorporation days when this was all county territory. The owners desired to put the in property to a different use and applied to have the zone changed to light manufacturing.

They withdrew their application, however, when informed by the Planning Commission that there were objections from neighbors to a light industrial operation in that location, primarily because the undedicated Mission Way would not be able to carry the expected traffic load. The Burdas then resubmitted an application asking for the property to be zoned commercial, including more property than in the first application and indicating that they would allow a street to be put in that would give ingress and egress to the area from W. Rincon Ave.

The Planning Commission approved the new application and it was sent to the City Council for the final okay. The Council held a public hearing and then gave first reading to the ordinance that would change the zoning.

But it was after the second reading of the ordinance, or to be specific, when the Council was ready to adopt it as the law of the City that the road block was struck. Three Council members voted "no" to defeat its adoption.

The reasosn for opposig the change in zone are sound. We feel that a very good case can be built against extending commercial zoning any further along W. Rincon Ave. We feel, therefore, that Councilmen Morton, Schmidt and Rose were acting in good faith in voicing and voting their opposition.

By the same token Mayor Chargin and Councilman Fairchild had an excellent case for favoring the ordinance, admitting that it was at its best a compromise to a bad situation.

Frankly we clearly see both sides of this issue and we are willing to go along with either. In one case the property owners are prevented from carrying out a development that, admittedly, is better than what exists today, but, on the other hand, may not be the best for the entire area. (The drawback, of course, to this latter reasoning is that no one has presented a better plan).

Therefore, in this particular instance we quite agree that there is much to be said for both sides. But our contention is simply that it should have all been said long, long before it came time for the final step to be taken, i.e., the passing of the ordinance.

All the points, pro and con, should have been threshed out long ago.

We agree that it is impossible in some instances to make a final decision on some matters until the eleventh hour. But we do not think this was the situation in this particular instance. As far as we can determine nothing new was added to the matter during the months when it was under discussion. Nothing was gained by waiting.

Undoubtedly the intentions of the three councilmen were good in voting "no" but their timing was extremely poor.

And the Eye-Sores Still Stand?

The action of the City Council on Monday night by which the ordinance to rezone an area was rejected again focuses the attention of all on one major point — and raises some interesting but academic questions:

What is to be done about some of the so-called "eye-sores" that blot and block any improvement program for the town?

Is it better to do something piece-meal for the immediate improvement of the town, i.e., face-lift or conversion.

Or is it better to wait for that ethereal day in the future when the proper solution is discovered and all the "eye-sores" are wiped out in one stunning blow?

Campbell has an ample supply of examples of what we mean.

But right now we haven't the answer. Have you?

OUT on the LIMB

with George Vierhus

Every time we get slightly smug about the job we are doing in "covering" our community, we get taken down a peg or two. We think that is good for us. This week for example, we realized how difficult it is to do a news "covering" job for the so-called fringe-areas, those new residential developments that have sprung up where orchards flourished before and are not affiliated actually with any particular city. At the moment at least. (San Jose, of course, is probably covetously eyeing 'em even now.)

We readily admit that it is difficult for those people living in those particular sections to get excited or enthusiastic over a problem that is peculiar to Campbell proper, mainly because they do not live within the city boundaries so they are not too much affected by the actions of Campbell's city administration.

But as you know the school distirct boundary lines, both high and elementary, extend far beyond the city limits of Campbell. And therein lies the problem.

We consider we do a pretty fair country job in covering the activities of the school districts. But we also cover the town itself thoroughly. So, if the people in the fringe areas are interested in the school districts, but not in the town, we have a heck of a time satisfying 'em.

This was brought to our attention this week by E. M. Wentzel, 18409 Swarthmore (Sunland Park). He is a commercial artist who recently moved to this area. He finds himself with a Saratoga mailing address, a Campbell telephone number, in county territory and in both the Campbell high and elementary school districts.

He told us he was getting The Campbell Press Merchandiser (our shopper covers a wider aera than its sister publication, but not The Press. He had received a notice telling him where to vote on the multi-million dollar bond and state aid election next Tuesday, February 5. But he said he didn't think he knew enough about the situation to vote intelligently.

He admitted that he would have learned about it had he been taking The Press, so he asked to be added to our rolls.

We were happy to add his name but it still presents a problem.

Have you any answer to it?

—o—

The icy blasts that swept off the snow-covered hills chilled all of us this week and then when snow began to fall we began to wonder whether Mother Nature hadn't got mixed in her directions.

Because of the weather, Elsie Rathbun, our veteran linotype operator (she's been exposed to print shops for more than 40 years) wasn't able to report to work until Monday afternoon. She and her husanbd live on a hill back of Los Gatos and the ice under the snow on the road made it virtually impassable without chains. And who ever heard of chains for ordinary driving in California?

The conditions of the road did something that neither sickness, nor flood, nor fire had been able to do previously. It stopped Elsie from coming to work.

And that, friends, is really something, if you knew Elsie.

—o—

"Checkers" made her appearance at our house last weekend and she really took over the household. She is a two-year old female boxer whose full name for the record is "Lady Checkers of Tulane".

You will probably hear more about her in this column from time to time, if her antics this week are any indication of what are to come.

She is having quite a time adjusting herself to the neighborhood but we hope we don't lose too many friends before she gets adjusted.

She likes to go riding and apparently it makes no difference in what kind of a car. She seems to like the beat-up station wagon as well as the Olds.

And the other day she climbed into the police car that was parked next door. We'll have to talk to her about that.

—o—

We feel quite fortunate that we have been able to obtain the services of Judge John D. Blaine, longtme resident of Campbell (some 69 years) as a columnist for The Press.

We hope to get Judge Blaine's column started in next issue and that it will be a regular feature from then on.

The Judge promises to fill us in with background material about the town and we are looking forward to this feature.

The Judge is no amateur at writing. One of his articles on education was accepted for publication by the Saturday Evening Post in 1939.

Judge Blaine is 82 years old and keeps fit by riding his bike and playing tennis once a week. He served as justice of peace for the Campbell Township for 24 years.

With Judge, 82 years young, and Marvin Moore, our 9-year old sports columnist, we feel we are spanning the ages pretty well around here.

In "On the Limb" recently we mentioned that we were not exactly sure when the original weekly of Campbell was renamed the "Interurban Press".

George Robson, secretary of the Campbell Building and Investment Co., another lively youngster who has been around this community for a long time, put us straight. He explained that the name was added when the interurban railway came to town, shortly after the turn of the century.

Mr. Robson was born in England and, although he has been in Campbell since about 1900, his British accent is still pronounced. He told us that he felt like wiping the floor with a local editor years ago who mentioned his name in the paper shortly after his arrivel here from England. That just wasn't done in the British Isles.

In the course of a recent conversation with Mr. Robson, he told us that he was 78 years old when he took his first airplane ride. The ride was in what he termed a "crate". When we asked him when that was, he said it was about five years ago and added, "that was a sneaky way of finding out my age".

So for mentioning it here we are liable to get smacked.

But both those guys, Judge Blaine and George Robson, should be proud of their ages—(164 years between 'em).

Brother, they both put us to shame.

OLD CHURCHES FOR SALE

Editor,
The Campbell Press.
Sir:

Apropos of a new post office for Campbell. And any ideas expressed herein are my own. So please heap no wrath on the shoulders of your editor. Mine are quite broad enough to carry the burden. Quite a sizeable group of our citizens feel as I do, so I'm not a lone voice crying in the wilderness.

When I was a kid, over half a century ago, we had many junk buyers who used to go up and down our alleys in Denver calling: "Any rags, any bottles for sale?" We used to pick up pennies through selling these junk men. Pennies in those days had purchasing power. When we had accumulated a bag of rags, we carefully hid a brick in the middle, hoping thereby to add weight. We were always caught at this trick and forced to unload the brick.

The more modern version of this junk buying, in Campbell, might well be; "Any old churches for sale?" And it seems to this writer that everyone of these ancient churches are loaded with not only bricks, but veritable blocks of concrete! When one of these churches become so shaky that the slightest tromp is liable to tumble it down, it is sold to our civic leaders, usually against the wishes of the majority.

We need a new post office. I've watched Campbell outgrow two of them. But is the purchase of the old Methodist Church going to solve any of our growing pains? Isn't it going to be the same old, "hope I can find a place to park for a minute." Or if there is none available, take a chance on double parking and hope we don't get ticketed. (The Campbell police have been more than lenient in this regard.) Is the building of a new post office across the street from the present one going to cut down on the number of patrons who need money orders, stamps, to mail packages? I don't blame any man for wanting to turn an honest dollar, but I do detect a slight odor coming from certain holders of an option on said church. Are their efforts to unload this ancient property strictly for the betterment of the community, or is theirs an ulterior motive?

There are many sites in Campbell large enough to house a post office suitable to our needs, a post office with plenty of parking, convenient to all. The site recently turned down had no less to offer than the one presently being considered. With the purchase of the Methodist Church, Campbell is NOT going to stop growing. Within another five or ten years, Campbell will find itself once more exactly where it is today, too big for her post office, and darned few satisfactory sites available. I think the majority of our citizens will agree with me that our new post office should have ample parking facilities for all, even during the busy season. It should have ample floor space to accommodate any increase in business over the next 25 or fifty years. Not for just tomorrow, or the day ofter! And it should not create a complete bottleneck on Campbell Avenue.

I have spoken, and let the chips fall where they may.

"How old am I?"
—asks Mrs. Dolores McHugh, 1555 31st Avenue, San Francisco, California

How wonderful to have a grandmother! Especially the modern kind—they're such good fun. And have you noticed how much younger they look (and feel) these days?

One good reason is modern household appliances. They "take over" the heavy chores that used to rob women of their youth and beauty.

Take Mrs. McHugh who has four grandchildren. She leaves most of her hard work to labor-saving appliances. She's 51, by the way.

Here's the beauty of it: With P. G. and E.'s low rates for gas and electricity you can run a houseful of appliances all day for half the price of most hair sprays!

Bucs Down Los Gatos 48-36 in SCVAL Win

Football season in review reigned as the Campbell Buccaneers downed the scrappy Los Gatos five 48-36 in a SCVAL league game Friday night on the winner's court. Campbell now has a league record of 3-1. Los Altos will be the hustling Bucs next league foe this Friday night at 7:30 at Los Altos.

In the Los Gatos game the Bucs were slow to get warmed up but really took fire after the blaze was kindled. The score we 11-7 at the end of the first quarter with Los Gatos on the long end. Roger Almquist and Ron Rowe sparked the Buc attack in the first half with Almquist dunking 5 and Rowe 2. Los Gatos led at the half stop by four points 19-15 with Campbell's usually slow third quarter coming up.

Campbell surprised everyone with their amazing showing to lead the Wildcats 27-24. Campbell clicked on almost every shot in the last quarter to dazzle the Los Gatos five and score 21 points to the dejected Wildcats 12.

Ron Rowe tallied 12 markers to lead the Bucs with Shenefiel and Almquist following with 11 and 10 points respectively. Gene Andres pulled down some fine rebounds and helped the Buc cause with 8 points.

In the preliminary game the little Bucs were downed by the Los Gatos five by a 31-40 score. The lightweights now have a 1-3 record.

Up to half time the little Bucs held their own being down only 2 points 22-20 at that mark. Tom Perry led the Buc attack in the first half slipping in 8 points in a dying cause. Ben Lujan followed Perry's lead in the second half dunking 8 on some fine drive ins. Lujan had the game high of 11 for the Bucs.

Live Oak Acorns Bow to Bucs, 45-21

By Richard Ferguson

Campbell's Buccaneers outclassed and overran the Live Oak Acorns 45-21 Tuesday afternoon on the Campbell hardwood. No trouble was experienced by the Bucs with every member of the entire team playing at least a quarter.

Far from beaten in the first quarter, the Acorn were down 13-6 but still fighting to upset the Bucs as they did last year. Ahead 22-12 going into the third quarter Coach Bert Robinson started his second Buc five and true to expectations the second stringers held the Acorns to one point while scoring 12 themselves.

Third quarter action was primarily handled by the Bucs third string team which was just as effective as their two higher counterparts. Lee McNabb, Art Hill, Bob Bridges, Rich Ferguson, and Ted Lyman finished out the third quarter scoring 13 points to the Acorns 7. The entire Campbell team took part in the victory and they all played a good game on defense and offense. Lyman wound up the game as the leading scorer with 7 points followed by Almquist, Shenefiel, and Rowe with 6 apiece.

Campbell's 'thirties' downed the Live Oak 'thirties' to start off the afternoon. Campbell started off slowly but dumped in 28 points in the last half to overwhelm the Live Oak cagers. Bob Jimeniz played a fine game in Tom Perry's place while he sat out the game with a sore ankle. Jimeniz dropped through 10 counters along with Dave LaBarbera to lead the scoring for the Bucs.

St. Lucy's Cagers Tackles St. Pat's Saturday Morning

With a record of one win and one loss, St. Lucy's School basketball team tackles the strong St. Pat's quintet Saturday morning (February 2) at St. Joseph's gym in San Jose in a regularly scheduled parochial league contest.

St. Lucy's cage outfit, (the only school outside of San Jose in the league) has been improving rapidly since the start of the season, and according to their coach, Jim Rogers, the members of the squad are making up in enthusiasm what they lack in experience. They are at their best in clearing the boards for rebounds with Harry Smedley leading the way in this department. This was the main factor in deciding the St. Mary's game which was won by St. Lucy's 20-17. In this battle, St. Lucy's was behind only once.

The first game of the season was against St. Joe's, the defending champs. The first half was close (12-10 for St. Joe's) but the local team tired in the second half as only seven men were on hand for the game. The final score was 32-21.

Smedley was high point man in the St. Joe contest with seven points and Hector Holland took honors in the St. Mary's game also with seven points.

Rites Held for Mrs. Laura Gilbert

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Campbell Memorial Chapel for Mrs. Laura Jane Gilbert, 82, of San Jose, who passed away January 26. She was the mother of Mrs. Alice Fair of Campbell.

A native of Pennsylvania, Mrs. Gilbert made her home at 82-A George Street, San Jose for the past twelve and one half years.

Beside Mrs. Fair, she is survived by nine other children, Josephine Gilbert of San Jose, Mrs. Margaret Wolfe, Mrs. Mabel Larimer and Albert Gilbert, all of Pennsylvania; Corwin Gilbert of Colorado, Loran Gilbert of Menlo Park, George Gilbert of San Francisco, Neil Gilbert of Maryland, and Mrs. Claire Hoye of San Fernando.

She was the sister of Mrs. O. F. Clever of Hollywood, Mrs. Nettie Stanford and Mrs. Mary Zellifrow, both of Pennsylvania and grandmother of 27.

Interment was in Alta Mesa Cemetery.

A collection of photographs made by Willard E. Worden during the 1906 earthquake and fire at San Francisco is on exhibit in the Wells Fargo History Room.

Forum to Present Film on Nicaragua

Do you know that RUSSIA may build a canal across Central America?

Returning to the Sunday Evening Community Forum platform for the second successive year will be one of the most amazing couples that San Jose audiences will ever have the opportunity to see. Dana and Ginger Lamb, who last year took Forum-goers on an almost unbelieveable tour of the desert wasteland of Lower California, will, on February 3, narrate their film of the Central American republic, titled, "Strategic Nicaragua". Formum meetings are held at 7:30 P.M. at the First Methodist Church, Fifth and Santa Clara Streets, San Jose.

For over 150 years the governments of first Spain, then France and England, and finally the United States have "talked" about financing a Nicaraguan Canal, but solid land still separates the Atlantic from the Pacific at this geographically strategic point.

Nicaragua offers a good route for a transoceanic passage; a better route than at Panama. Faster, 500 miles shorter, more economical, easier to defent, and no locks would be needed.

At present there are two major political parties in Nicaragua, with the Liberals strongly against the "Yanquis Barbaros", and in favor of Russia. The Conservatives favor U. S. cooperation.

The future history of the world hangs in the balance on which way Nicaragua will turn in this crucial question of who will build the strategic canal. The Lamb's brilliant color film tells the whole story.

Vehicle Owners Lag in Registering Autos for 1957

At the close of business this week some 2,724,000 of California's nearly seven million vehicle owners had renewed the registration of their cars, trucks, buses, trailers and motorcycles.

They received, for the first time, a new kind of license-plate attachment to signify that their certificates of registration for 1957 had been validated.

The new attachment is a bright red sticker, bearing the figure "57." And it sticks. Sticks real good. It's made of a resin material containing glass beads scientifically and focally arranged to reflect light, and thus shows up in the dark. It is attached to the rear license plate.

It is gummed with an adhesive having a pressure-sensitive rubber base, which stands up under just about any condition one could name. It is widely employed on salt water bouy markings used by the U. S. Coast Guard, and on box cars to indicate explosives.

The stickers cost the State $16,-500 more than the old metal tabs; but since they weigh next to nothing, the savings in shipping costs will be a great deal more than that according to Paul Mason, motor vehicles director.

Motorists like the red stickers, because there are no bolts to loosen or replace.

Have you got yours yet?

Counting today (Thursday, January 31), motorists have just three full days and one Saturday half day to pay their 1957 registration fees. The final renewal day is February 4. After that date, all 1957 vehicle fees become delinquent, and the law provides penalties of up to 100 per cent on some registration transactions.

Grange Honors Quarter-Century Members at Meet

Quarter century members of Orchard City Grange were honored at the last meeting and presented with pins and corsages by Worthy Lecturer Cora Kaufmann and Worthy Flora Elizabeth Pesch. Mrs. Jessie McChesney, a Past Master; Werner Raab, a Past Master, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lester and Mrs. Anna Dolfin were escorted to the Master's right by Worthy Assistant Stewards Mervyn Keesling and Mrs. Les Strickler, where they were welcomed by Master Fred Bentley.

Emmet Ivy, Pomona Master, addressed the group on the service of the Grange, its purpose and growth and stated that Orchard City Grange, instituted April 1, 1903, is one of the oldest Orders in the nation.

Tap, Ballet, Hawaiian and modern dance numbers were presented by a group of youngsters and were introduced by Worthy Lecturer Cora Kaufmann.

Visiting Masters from other Grange groups were introduced by Fred Bentley.

Annual reports were made by: Owen Jones, treasurer; Mrs. Malcolm Blue, secretary; Mrs. Catherine Haliwell for Ceres; and Mrs. George Davis, Home Economics chairman. Mrs. Davis announced the next Home Economics meeting will be held February 8 at the home of Mrs. Bessie Merrill, 75 South Second St.

Junior Past Master B. K. Werner was escorted to the Master's table where he was presented with a rose bush, commemorating his service during the past year. Robert Scholz was also presented with a rose bush in appreciation of the flowers he had contributed during the past year for use in the lodge hall.

A Valentine party will highlight the February 12 meeting.

Mrs. Bessie Merrill, Miss Ruby Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. George Davis served refreshments following the meeting. Mrs. Charles Scarper provided African violets used in decorating the hall, and Mrs. Elizabeth Pesch and Mrs. Malcolm Blue provided the corsages and roses for the evening.

Open House at Nursery

Saratoga Nursery Cooperative will hold open house next week Monday through Friday, at the Saratoga Federated Church, Los Gatos Road and Oak Place in Saraotga.

Parents interested in watching older children, age 4 and up, are invited to come Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Those interested in three year olds are invited to come at the same hours on Tuesday and Thursday.

Faculty Wives Adopt By-Laws

Telling of his trip behind the "Iron Curtain" last summer, the Rev. Herbert Neale, pastor of Campbell First Methodist Church, was guest speaker at Campbell High School Faculty Wives' Club meeting last week.

Mrs. Len Scroggins presided at the business meeting when the newly organized group adopted by-laws presented by a committee, headed by Mrs. James Muir. The group formerly met with Camden faculty wives until the group decided to divide due to the ever-increasing membership.

Another matter taken up was the cake sale the group will sponsor to benefit their scholarship fund.

Following committee members were appointed to handle the cake sale: Mesdames Frank Meiss, Hal Raley, Robert Elmore, Claude Cunningham, Ken Wallace and James Bunger.

Another committee was named to make arrangements for the club's annual dinner to be held in March: Mesdames Wade Wilson, chairman, Ken Wallace and Louis Marotti.

Methodist Youth Fellowship will join with fellowship groups of other area churches in a Youth Rally at the Church of the Valley on Sunday evening at 7, climaxing the various activities of National Youth Week.

Young Couple Recite Vows In Double-Ring Ceremony

The Willow Glen Baptist Church was the setting for the December double ring ceremony which united Freda Joan Williams and Michael Rowland Elliott in marriage. The Rev. Stanley R. Johnson performed the rites.

For her wedding, Freda chose a full length gown of lace over satin styled with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt which swept into a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil was caught to a small Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid when escorted to the altar by her father.

Maid of Honor, and only attendant of the bride, was Miss Elaine Foster who wore an ice-blue ballerina length gown with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She wore a small white net and carried pale blue carnations on her Bible.

Freda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Williams and sister of Sam, Joseph, Charlotte, Caroline and Roddy of 90 E. Parr Avenue, Campbell. She graduated from Campbell Union High School and is now emplayed by San Jose Abstract Company.

Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland B. Elliott and brother of Patricia of San Jose. He is also a graduate of Campbell High School and presently is serving with the U. S. Army at Fort Belvoir, Virginia but expects to be transferred to San Francisco in the near future.

For her daughter's wedding, the mother of the bride selected a light blue crepe dress with pink accessories and pinned on a corsage of pink roses.

Mother of the groom wore a gray silk gown with aqua accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where fifty friends offered their felicitations to the young couple.

BRIDE AND GROOM CUT WEDDING CAKE . . . Following the ceremony at Willow Glen Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rowland Elliott received friends at a reception held in the home of the bride's parents on E. Parr Ave. Mrs. Elliott is the former Freda Joan Williams of Campbell.

Cambrian Faculty Hears CTA Talk

When Cambrian District Faculty Club met at Cambrian School last Thursday, members voted support of the California Teachers' Association's current legislative program whereby an amount equal to one dollar for each member of the club be sent to the state group to support current legislative program, according to Al Vatuone, principal at the new Martin Farnham School.

Major portion of the bill, sponsored by the CTA, now being introduced in the Legislature would increase amount of money the state allots to local school districts for each child's education. The bill would also provide for a minimum salary of $4200 for fully qualified teachers throughout the state.

AIB PLANS SKI TRIP

Judy Bohnett and Jean Raymond of American Trust Company in Campbell will spend Saturday and Sunday at Bijou, Lake Tahoe, along with 75 other members of Santa Clara County Chapter American Institute of Banking.

The group will travel by bus and auto, leaving at 4 a.m. Saturday and returning late Sunday evening.

This is the third annual snow trip sponsored by the Board of Consuls of the A. I. B. which will be headed this year by Ruth Fisher, San Jose, president of the chapter.

Women

'Mother's March' Set for Tonight

The Mother's March, an annual affair conducted by women throughout the Nation, will again find Campbell area mothers tonight making their house to house canvass asking for contributions toward the fight against Polio. This event is the mainstay of the March of Dimes Foundation's financial support.

This year, however, the operation takes on a new aspect as it is being coupled with a vaccine education effort by the National Foundation to encourage families to obtain their Salk Vaccine shots. With this in mind, mothers will distribute pamphlets and vaccine record cards and be equipped to tell the story of the need for Polio vaccination.

A novel twist to the "March" will be tried out tonight in downtown San Jose when business men don women's clothes and carry a card proclaiming, "I Am a Mother" while asking for contributions.

Campbell campaign has been divided into school areas with a chairman at each school in charge of its particular area.

Chairmen of the school districts are: Mesdames Katherine Nevin, Cherry Lane; Mary Fairbanks, Dover; Barbara Roenlund, Hamilton; Joe Moore, Cypress; Amelia Romac, Monroe; H. C. Sjoberg, Rosemary; Katherine Thompson, Moorpark and William Finney, San Tomas.

Mrs. Nancy Jensen will head the drive in the Moreland District which includes El Quito Park, Bucknall, Strawberry Park and Moreland Schools.

DISTRICT BOND APPROVAL SOUGHT

Coffee hours are being held throughout the Campbell Union High School district and speakers have appeared before most of the PTA and Home and School groups to acquaint residents with the urgent need of having facilities in the district keep pace with tremendous student growth, urging local citizens to vote approval of propositions one and two in the election next Tuesday.

In Campbell Elementary School District there is a joint election, since the elementary district has an equally important election at the same time at the same polling places.

BPWC TO MEET AT CITY HALL

Business and Professional Women's Club will meet February 13 at 8:00 p.m. in the Conference Room of the new City Hall at 75 N. Central Avenue. Program for February is "International Relations".

Initiation of four new members took place at last Wednesday's meeting which was held at the home of Miss Marian Hill on N. Milton Avenue.

New members welcomed into the club with the Emblem ceremony were: Cleo Morser, Evelyn Adamson, Katherine Blasingame and Alberta Lacque.

Volunteer Bureau Seeks Workers

Tremendous growth of industry and population in Santa Clara County has increased the demand for volunteer workers in the many welfare agencies throughout the county.

Volunteer Bureau is seeking volunteers to donate spare hours for all types of work, from reading to some blind person, to craft and dance instruction. Besides work in various agencies, there is also a need for volunteers, unable to leave their home, to donate spare time at various projects in their own home.

Anyone interested in helping in the growth of the community through volunteer services, may contact the Volunteer Bureau, 217 Security Building, 84 South First St., San Jose or phone Mrs. Aline Burns at Cypress 7-1928 for an interview.

St. Lucy's Dads Plan Feed

Jim Roulo took reins of St. Lucy's Dads' Club at the January meeting, replacing Pete Giorgianni who resigned as president for health reasons and due to pressure of business.

During that meeting, plans were discussed for the "spaghetti feed" which will be held next Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the school hall. Pete Aiello is chairman of the affair, with Pete Giorgianni, co-chairman.
